AS LANGUAGE IS KEY

Language Boozt

– a conversational get-together once a week. We talk to each other, get to know one another, discuss a whole host of general topics and give each other the boost and confidence we need when it comes to speaking English.

It doesn't matter where you are in the world, whatever background or current language skills you have, you are welcome to join this online community and we welcome you with open arms and eager ears.

After we tried, tested and tweaked the pilot version this spring, we are currently on a summer break, but we will start again at the end of August with the first session scheduled at 4.30 pm CET, 31 August. If you sign up now, you get the Early Bird price which means you only pay 2,500 SEK (incl VAT) and we will keep your subscription going until the end of the year.

On the 5th of September, the price goes up to 2,800 SEK and you get 4 months' worth of language-learning pleasure.

Language Boozt Academy

– a course for the corporate conversationalists of this world, i.e. Business English. If you are interested in improving your negotiation skills, sales pitch or perhaps the all-important relationship-building in terms of small talk, you have found the perfect spot to do just that. Make sure you will not fall short and get tongue-tied right when the potential customer is about to sign on the dotted line.

We meet once a week online, so you can participate from your office, from your car or you can even pour yourself an espresso and take a pew in your favourite armchair. Your secret is safe with us.

The important thing is that you join in as an active member of the class and engage in the conversational topics and themes we throw at you on a weekly basis. This course is open to anyone of any business, any industry and on any corporate level. Nor does it matter whether you are self-employed, employed or entrepreneur, a student or someone looking for new job opportunities. We are delighted that you want to join us with your area of expertise and build a whole network of contacts within the LBA community.

We are currently on a summer break, but will get going again in September with the first session being at 11:30 am CET, 1 September. If you sign up now, you get the Early Bird price which means you only pay 9,500 SEK (excl VAT) and we will keep your subscription going until the end of the year.
